DEADLINE IS COMING UP FAST, FOR THE NORFOLK TALENT COMPETITION

Get Your Registration Form In, Before It's Too Late!

SIMCOE- The 6th annual Norfolk Talent Competition hosted by Norfolk County Fair & Horse Show is anticipating the exposure of many new talents this year. Do you have singing, dancing or instrumental talent? Fill out your registration form and get it in by Tuesday, September 15th, 2009.

If you have hidden talent and you are ready to expose it, be sure to complete all three steps to be a success! First step, you must complete a registration form, available online at www.norfolkcountyfair.com and deliver it to the Fair office at 172 South Dr. Simcoe, Ont N3Y 1G6 or fax it to (519)-426-7286 by Tuesday September 15th, 2009.

Second step, you must audition to pre-qualify, Saturday, September 19th, 2009 at 10 am at the Simcoe Little Theatre.

Last step, you must compete at the Norfolk County Talent Competition, at the Norfolk County Fair & Horse Show Saturday, October 10th, 2009. The competition will take place in the Simcoe Recreation Centre. All the rules and regulations are available online at www.norfolkcountyfair.com

Larry Dawson the Director of the Norfolk Talent Show explains that “the talent competition gives the youth of our community a chance to showcase their talent. Over the past six years we have had an amazing amount of talent come forward in both age groups, many have continued to entertain at community events and other venues. There is no better way to show your talent than at the Norfolk County Fair and Horse Show on October 10th, of 2009. We would like to thank the Simcoe Reformer for their continued support and we look forward to our partnership with the Lighthouse Festival Theatre.”

In addition to other great prizes and awards, this year's winners will compete at the 2010 Rising Star CNE Competition.
