The Norfolk County Fair & Horse Show is pleased to announce our 8th Annual Norfolk County Wildlife Festival & Adventure Show on March 13th & 14th, 2010.

The excitement of this annual festival is clearly catching! Attendance has been on the rise since our first event in 2003 and as the Event Coordinator it has been a pleasure bringing such a worthwhile event to Norfolk County. Norfolk County Wildlife Festival & Adventure Show has been designed to provide an educational, entertaining environment for people of all ages to experience.

We are very excited to introduce the NEW entertainers that will be appearing at this year's festival. David Arama from W.S.C. Survival School will be teaching the audience some awesome survival techniques, Jungle Cat World will be returning with their cats and Canadian Canine College will grab your attention with their amazing dog agility, rally obedience and tricks. Back by popular demand is the Muskoka Wildlife Centre with their smaller animals! But don't forget the Festival's favourites, which include the Reptile Show by Little Ray's Reptile Zoo and the free climbs on the 24 foot climbing wall!

This event offers outdoor enthusiasts a chance to see nature at its best. Families can participate in fun and educational activities and browse through a variety of exhibits. Everything from snakes and adults can get educated on green cleaners and products. There will be a bug and butterfly display and why not leave with something to remember the festival by like a free balloon animal made by BalloonNation's Balloon Artists and take the opportunity to enjoy the artistry of local wildlife artists displayed by Norfolk ArtsCo.

A number of organizations and businesses will be exhibiting at the show and providing hands on activities, including Long Point Region Conservation Authority, Girl Guides of Canada, Lynn Valley Scouts, North Shore Erie Amateur Astronomers, VanGo Adventure Farms, Wagon Wheel Produce, Ontario Early Years Centre, Royal Oak Feeds, 4-H Club plus many more.

If you wish to become part of this fabulous adventure and participate as an exhibitor, please complete the Festival's Exhibitor Application and return it to our office as soon as possible as space is limited. The application is located at www.norfolkcountyfair.com under Yearly Events, Wildlife Festival.
